Notes for WILLIAM EDWARD TURNBULL:

William Turnbull and his wife lived on a farm on the West Monroe road about a mile from the Village of Central Square. The land around the Turnbull farm was covered with cedar and woods. William took loads of tanned leather to the city of Syracuse and brought back 3000 lbs of green leather to be tanned. He worked for Georger Elliot whose father owned the tannery and all the land on East street in Central Square. William also helped in the building of the O&W railroad by drawing fill. When the RR took it's first run to Oswego N. Y. he took his young son Edward with him.

Mr and Mrs Turnbull according to records of the Baptist Church of Central Square were members of that church in 1872. Their children James, Margaret, Mary and Eddie were listed in the intermediate department an infant class in 1872 and 73.

William was married previously to Hannah, a ministers daughter named Hanna and had a child named Hannan b 1848 d 1850.

In England he was a game keeper for a Lord.
