I am Enclosing a copy of some News paper clippings that were in the Bible covering my Great Grand mother + Grand father 60th wedding

Also Enclosed are copies of Wm Turnbull letters published in the Hasting paper covering some of his Action in the Civil war,
you probably Don't Remember me but I use to come back to Hasting in the summer & visit L.W & Rena & Great Grandpa John Little Everett & I use to go swimming at Lake Rebecca I really enjoyed those summer visits I believe 1936-37

I am working on the Turnbull Pedigree chart & Family group sheets as soon as I get them pretty well put together I'll send you a copy of them. I suppose you got a copy of Ann Baustrud copy of the Family Tree if not let me know and I'll send you a copy I have written the Hasting Gazette regarding additional copies of Wm Turnbulls Civil war letters but they never answered me.

That's about all I can think of Now but if you have any additional information I'd appreciate your sending it to

Happy New year

Wm Turnbull

Dear Roy + Phyllis —

Yes - this is all very exciting! We get spastic activity around here with family histories, and it came to a lull about 2 yrs ago. Now we are in action again and will be sending the application for membership to the Turnbull Clan.

I have copied all the sheets we have made up on the family so far and they are enclosed. If I understand everything we have — I haven't found anything that tells us that William's Brothers came to America. If Isabelle was born 31. Oct. 1818 and came to U.S. when about 19 (per Mabel Wilkins history) then she and William came over about 1837. Per info from newspaper clippings it stated they settled in Patterson, New Jersey, then Philadelphia, Pa., then Baltimore, Maryland, then Galena, Illinois and then to Hastings in fall of 1865. (How long in each place, don't know.) If anyone has birth dates and places of all William's children, that would help in knowing how long in each place, about. The only one we have is John Quincy in Ellicott City, Maryland in 1849.

I would suppose you would want to copy the sheets on the Scotland people and send on to John Turnbull - and maybe part of Mabel Wilkins Turnbull History.

at least, I hope all of this helps.

Anne Bonstreux sent ~~a~~ a copy ^{of Mabel's history} to Leslie + he gave to us - we started a letter back to her and then lost all info and never got that project finished - very sorry
we never finished that.

① if you see Anne - tell her we really appreciated the info she sent and could use her address.

② if you find our blank spots on sheets enclosed, and have the answers, let us know what they are. Especially all the children of William Turnbull. ^{may have to get some} ^{death certificates.}

③ Let us know what info you get from Scotland.

④ A family reunion would probably be in order - what do you think?
Would you want in Minn. or Denver?
We'd be happy to work on it from this end. Sounds fun - ~~then~~ then we could put faces with names and share histories.

3

I hope all of the enclosed makes sense to you.

Will hope to hear from you again one of these days.!

Hope you + all your family have a fabulous 1978

TURNBULL FAMILY TREE

Annie Henderson lived in the north of Ireland. Her family was "Quality." (They had a pew in the Kirk.) Angus McDonald, a soldier was stationed in the north of Ireland. (He stood 6 feet 2 inches in his stocking feet.) Theirs was a run-away match. They had seven little girls: Annie, Mary, Margaret, Elizabeth, Catherine, Frances, and Isabella (Grandma). The mother died of a fever, and the father away fighting under Wellington in Egypt. (The doctor sat him down and cried.) Afterwards Catherine and Frances died of a fever.

Grandma went to the Reading school and learned to read but in Writing school she got a blot on her copy book and the master whacked her hand. She never went back. She worked in the cotton mills as a weaver till she was about eighteen when she married William Turnbull and they came to America, to Maryland.

He had two brothers, Hector and Thomas. One was a teacher and the other an actor in London (Shakesperian plays). He also had an uncle Gavin who wrote poetry. Violet used to have a book of Robert Burns' poems with some of his in the back.

Well, they were married and came to America when about 19 to Maryland. It was a slave state, so afterwards they came to Illinois then to Minnesota. Their children were:

John (died in infancy)

Thomas (1 child, died in infancy)

Annie (my mother) Mabel Wilkins - Violet

William, not married - 76

John (Leslie, Florence Buller, Everett, Arthur)

George (Violet's father) Peterson

Mary—"Aunt Mary" (Charles, died in infancy, Edith, Albert Roy, Irving, Margaret)

Charles (not married)

Grandma Turnbull's sisters:

Annie, married and stayed in Scotland (I know nothing about her)

Mary, married Mr. Harris, a good-for-nothing. Two children, a boy who stayed in scotland and a girl Jane who came with her mother to America as a baby. She contracted Smallpox on the ship and was terribly pocked. She lived for many years with Aunt Bessie.

Margaret, married Mr. McKinley. Their children were John, George, Sandy, William, Sarah, Isabel. Margaret died of blood poisoning not very old. John was killed in the Civil War. George and Sandy lived on farms near Cannon Falls and had families, mostly boys. I knew them slightly. William was a Methodist preacher. I knew him quite well at Winona. Sarah married Mr. Williamson, also a farmer near Cannon Falls. Their children were George, Emma, Annie. Isabel married Emery North and lived on a farm near Moorhead for many years. Their children were George, Walter, William. William was about my age. I knew him quite well.

Elizabeth ("Aunt Bessie" married Mr. McNally and also lived on a farm near Cannon Falls. She had no children that lived. She was the one with the "Chany cupboard" pieces brought from Scotland. She took quite a fancy to me because I was rather plump ("a braw, muckle gear!" she said). So every summer when we went to visit her she gave me a little vase or pitcher or something from the China cupboard. She never gave to anyone else.
